

South Korea Travel & K-ETA Entry Guide

Entry Requirements: Indonesian travelers traveling to South Korea require a tourist visa (individual C-3-9 visa or group visa). Certain temporary visa waiver programs or K-ETA exemptions may apply for select transit passengers visiting Jeju Island or transferring through Incheon Airport.

Top Destinations in Seoul: Gyeongbokgung Palace, Bukchon Hanok Village, Myeongdong shopping district, N Seoul Tower, and Hongdae street performance area.

Transportation: T-money card provides convenient cashless payment across subways, city buses, and taxis nationwide.

Currency & Payment: South Korean Won (KRW). Credit cards are universally accepted, but having cash for traditional street food markets (like Gwangjang Market) is recommended.
